B. SIGNIFICANT DATES

1. Records in the Appraisal Department of the County Auditor's office list the "age" of the building as 1905. However, the 1904 City Directory lists 182 West 10th as the address of Professor Wilbur H. Siebert, who had been listed the year before as living at 206 West 10th. It would appear, then, that the house was built between the canvasses for the 1903 and 1904 City Directories.

2. Professor Siebert died September 2, 1961 (T 9/8/61).

3. Following Professor Siebert's death, the property passed through the hands of several owners and was finally purchased by the University on May 15, 1963 for $36,509 (Deed Book, Vol. 2481, p. 395).

C. MISCELLANEOUS

1. The property has been used by the University as a scholarship house for students in the School of Nursing. It replaces an earlier Bibbee Scholarship House on King Avenue (H 403), and was bought 'b~ from the proceeds of the sale of that earlier house.
